

Relive the golden age of travel, the 1930's, when island-hopping the South Pacific was a once-in-a-lifetime adventure for the privileged few. Royal Pacific Resort at Universal Orlando®, A Loews Hotel, re-creates the glamour, charm and romance of that bygone era. A dramatic bamboo forest and terraced rice paddies mark your entrance. Sparkling waterfalls and swaying palm trees point the way to your room. A serene orchid court where flowers are always in bloom soothes your spirit. The warm sand beach of a lagoon-style swimming pool tempts you to shed your shoes — and your cares — forever. And a grand staircase with carved mahogany leads you to a world of tropical delights. This luxury resort is unquestionably Orlando's most exotic, and one of three spectacular on-site hotels at Universal Orlando® Resort.

All within 15 minutes' drive:
 Orlando International Airport ✳ Downtown Orlando

TROPICAL DELIGHTS

The aroma of exotic spices. The taste of fresh tropical fruits. The sizzle of expertly prepared cuisine brought to your table by an attentive staff. Royal Pacific Resort will dazzle your senses with a variety of dining options, from casual fare to gourmet cuisine. From early in the morning to late at night, savor the taste of the tropics at Royal Pacific Resort.

Emeril's Tchoup Chop

Celebrity chef Emeril Lagasse's second Universal Orlando® restaurant takes Asian cuisine and "kicks it up a notch" with his own unique style.

Orchid Court Lounge

Sit back, relax and enjoy a tropical cocktail in the delightful Orchid Court Lounge, located in the lobby.

Islands Dining Room

Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, Islands Dining Room offers a wide variety of cuisine served in friendly, casual surroundings.

Jake's American Bar

The pilot of his own island-hopper airline, Jake also runs this friendly bar that's the perfect place to meet for drinks, food and lively conversation after your day's adventures.

Bula Bar and Grill

Bula means "welcome" in Fiji, and you'll definitely feel right at home at this poolside eatery serving up food and beverages with a tropical flair.
